Sample lesson number one:

What does it mean to be saved?

God loves His children and wants us all to be saved. We may think we do not deserve to go to heaven, but if we did deserve heaven then we would not need a Savior!

God loves us, no matter what. We may think we have done things so awful that God would not want to save us but that is not true. God forgives all of our sins and welcomes us into His church.

What do we need to do to be saved? Only one thing; we need to pray for salvation. God wants us to be ready to receive His grace. Do not worry about how you stand before God. Just have faith that God will do it because you have asked Him to.

Sample lesson number two:

In order to help his students to understand the parable of the Good Samaritan (Luke 10:25-37), the Sunday school teacher told this modern version:

One day a boy was on the playground with his class at recess. This boy was playing by himself because he did not have very many friends. He was a new student in his class. The boy fell off of the slide and hurt his arm, but at first no one came to help him.

One girl came by and saw that he was hurt. She shrugged her shoulders and told herself that she didn't need to help because she was not in this boy's class.

Another student walked by the hurt boy. He did not stop either because he was heading inside to go to the school office.

A third student found the hurt boy. She was not a popular student because she was poor and sometimes came to school with dirty clothes. Not very many students wanted to play with her. She stopped and helped the boy stand up, introduced herself, and took the boy to the recess teacher to get help.

Which one of these students will go to heaven?

Can the unkind students behave better if they try?

Sample lesson number three:

Now the works of the flesh are evident: sexual immorality, impurity, sensuality, ²⁰ idolatry, sorcery, enmity, strife, jealousy, fits of anger, rivalries, dissensions, divisions, ²¹ envy, drunkenness, orgies, and things like these. I warn you, as I warned you before, that those who do such things will not inherit the kingdom of God. ²² But the fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, goodness, faithfulness, ²³ gentleness, self-control; against such things there is no law. ²⁴ And those who belong to Christ Jesus have crucified the flesh with its passions and desires. Galatians 5:19-23, ESV

The youth group was studying this passage from Galatians. Here are some of the things the youth asked during the discussion. After each statement give a correcting response:

“The first two verses list quite a few sins. Does this mean that people who commit these sins will not go to heaven?”

1.

“I can’t be joyful and kind all the time. Does this mean I do not have enough faith?”

2.

“If I stay away from the sins listed in the first verse will God give me the fruits of the Spirit?”
