Say not, "Why were the former days better than these?" For it is not from wisdom that you ask this. (Eccl 7:10 ESV).

Look around... Visit LEAconnects for access to all LEA resources. Easy to search and browse! No log in necessary. Come in and browse around. (You don't need to be a member right now.) Give the search feature a try. Some older resources may be gated, and you may be asked to provide your email to verify your membership. Be sure to use the email at which you receive LEAnews. Use LEAconnects in place of the "Resources" tab and search feature on LEA's website.

Too late for Labor Day... but for many readers, Labor Day was too late for them! Anyway, ponder The Spirituality of Everyday Life (Gene Veith in Cranach blog). You still have a vocation, you know. And it's better than a vacation. Vacations end; vocations might change, but they never end.

Start a conversation... How to Connect With Anyone You Just Met With 5 Questions (Paul Sohn in ChurchLeaders).

Good listening... See God Has Called Us—A Conversation on Race Relations (Pres. Allan Buss & Rev. Elstner Lewis, Northern Illinois Dist., LCMS).

This week's proverbial devotion: Here's One for Satan from the Proverbs for Teachers reprint series.
